About the Author Zig Ziglar was born in 1913 in Ripley, Indiana. He is considered one of the most popular motivational speakers of all time. He is most famous for his writing and speaking about "The Zig Ziglar Quick Success Formula" and 100 Things I Love About Australia. Vote Now. Some of the best things about Australia are things that are hard to put into words. Maybe you don't know how to do that. That's ok, because you're about to find out! I present to you my 100 Things I Love About Australia video. Australians have a reputation for being the best people, and for living the dream. I'm glad that these traits are shared. In addition to a good living and a happy existence, we are free of politics. Our national politics are all about controlling the people. We don't need a lot of politics to get us to live well. A good education and enough income to survive are good enough to make the rest of our lives good. The trick to living well is really to understand what living well means. You probably don't, because you're not an Australian. But to live well means that you have a family, a job, enough money, and are free of stress. In addition to being able to live well, you need to be able to enjoy
